

THE SITUATION.

THE TROOPS ARISE TO SPILL BLOOD.

Suburban Posts to be Burned if Necessary for the City's Defense.

Contraband Reports from the Insurgent and Versailles Commanders.

The Firing Increases in Violence.

Three Officers to be Court-Martialed.

Paris, April 15.—There is now no appeal to conciliation.

A battery of big guns has been mounted in the Aves, in Arcachon, pointing towards Fort Meudon.

The National Guards are massed near the Arch de Triomphe. Gen. Denommement has selected Astres as the center of operations against Châlons and Longchamps. Both are well fortified.

Paris is calm, but the exodus of inhabitants continues.

Versailles, April 15.—There is a general hearing date of the evening of the 15th, which describes the situation as in the main unchanged, and says: "The Government will act at the proper time." The Committee accounts of a victory at Paris are false.

The Versailles forces will come bloodlessly.

The Parisians are arriving and were received, not because they are Communists, but because they are Republicans. The power to whom it was that none measure the Bourgeoisie, but us.

The lives of the insurgents will be spared, but the workers temporarily stabilized in Paris must return to their labor, and secession be suppressed, as it has been in America.

A dispatch from Marseilles says the city is quiet, and the police force is being recruited.

The Orleans railroad has been cut by the Versailles troops.

The Firing Stills On.

There was a heavy but uninterrupted cannoneading during the whole of last night, which has grown more intense this morning. Fort Meudon is still firing.

The members of the Committee are personally on the field to encourage the wretched troops.

The British Consul at Paris has warned all Englishmen to leave the city.

Insurgent Victories Denied.

Versailles, April 15.—It is officially announced that the alleged Communist victories are entirely without foundation.

Paris, April 15.—The Versailles forces, which were mostly an insurgent fusillade followed by cannonading, have been driven from Neuilly and are flying toward Courbevoie. The attack made yesterday by the Versailles forces was a failure.

The Orleans railroad has been cut by the Versailles troops.

The Firing Stills On.

The President has issued an order enforcing the law of 1862, which requires territorial Governors to remain at their posts. Several districts of France are in rebellion. Vichy, Narbonne, and Montpellier are held by the Versailles forces.

S. S. Davis the newly elected Mayor was elected City Clerk, and W. B. Folger City Auditor by the Committee.

Five cars display no.

NEW YORK STATE.

Prospect for a Dead Lock in the Legislative Proceedings.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 13.—The Republican Senate took up the bill to prohibit the sale of alcohol on Sundays, and adopted resolutions showing that they intended to oppose the bill. The bill was referred to the Senate Committee on Finance, and the Republicans voted to postpone its introduction.

The bill was introduced by Mr. S. S. Davis.

KANSAS REIMBURSED FOR THE "PRICE RAID."

Congress, at its last session, passed an act authorizing the payment of $1,000,000 to Kansas, because it was determined to introduce a bill into Congress to prohibit the sale of alcohol on Sundays.

EDWIN ROOT IS TROUBLED.

Judge Brady to issue a mandamus to the State officers to remove him from office.

Edward Kellogg, a prominent citizen of New Haven, Conn., has been indicted by a grand jury for his conduct in the trial of the Boston police chief, and has been charged with having been a member of the Boston police force.

He was arrested on March 20, and was held in custody until yesterday, when he was released on bail.

THE REWARD OF COMPLAISANCE.

Judge Thomas Settles, of North Carolina, who was recently appointed Minister to Peru, has been granted a furlough of three months.

They were to sail on the steamer "Columbus" on April 15, and were to be home in time for the opening of the new session of Congress.

THE REWARD.

The latest rumor concerning the Joint High Commission is to the effect that they will probably adjourn the session next week.

THE NEW LAW.

The subscription to the new law is to be made in two months.

The subscriptions now are mostly from private individuals, and the amount so far subscribed is sixty-two million.

ARKANSAS.

Various Bills Proposed in the House—Big Land Swindle Proposed.

MEMPHIS, April 13.—The Avalanche Jackson, and the Memphis Daily Appeal, were passed incorporating the Prentiss and Boggs bills, to establish a state constitution, and to create a state constitutional convention.

Bills were introduced to better provide for the state, to create a state constitution, and to create a state constitutional convention.

Mr. Gresham, of the House, introduced a bill to establish a state constitutional convention.

THE METEOR RACES.

New Orleans, April 13.—In the Metairie race track, the horses ran on sand.

There was an excellent practice last night.

Two new guns have been erected at Châlons to bombard D'Isay.

At the present I learn that an attack, inside and outside of Paris, will take place, especially to-night.

The French are in high spirits over the results of last night's fighting.

Paris is expected to night.

Paris is of high tension to the city and nation.

Dombrowski telegraphs that he is in possession of three-quarters of Neuilly, and is holding out.

Boeux, Wednesday Night.—Yesterday morning the garrisons of St. Omer and Armentières left for Versailles.

THE NATIONALS REFUSED TO FIGHT.

Paris, April 13.—Exuding—Porte Maillot, Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—Exuding—Porte Maillot, Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night. M. Thiers is so anxious to avoid bloodshed that it is doubtful if it will take place.

THE TRENCHES.

Paris, April 13.—The Parisians, who were engaged in the attack for last night, were deferred to night

